

Studia Historiae Oeconomicae

Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Faculty of History

Editor-in-Chief: Tadeusz Janicki (wyki@amu.edu.pl)

Co-Editor: Lucyna Błażejczyk - Majka (majkal@amu.edu.pl)

Co-Editor: Martin Faber (martin.faber@geschichte.uni-freiburg.de)

Studia Historiae Oeconomicae Editorial and publishing rules

The Studia Historiae Oeconomicae is a peer-review publication, and the papers received are submitted to double-blind refereeing.

The referral process is blind and is supervised by the Editors.

Login or Register to make a submission.

The editors of SHO accept for publication in the journal original, previously unpublished, problem and review articles on economic and social history, in accordance with the subject matter specified each time in Call for Papers. The journal is open to both research and theoretical texts. In accordance with the mission of the SHO, which consists in promoting the scientific achievements of Polish economic and social historians in the world, their texts constitute an essential part of each volume. Apart from them, articles sent from other countries are also published.

SHO is an annual published in collaboration with Sciendo De Gruyter. The editorial office accepts texts in Polish and English. Articles are published in English. The journal is published in a printed and electronic version.

All SHO articles are published under the Open Access clause: they undergo a full peer review process, are freely available on the Sciendo and PressTo platforms, can be freely downloaded from the Sciendo and PressTo platforms, and can be used under a chosen Creative Commons user license.

Detailed editorial rules can be found in the files: Instructions for Authors. Please use them in the submitted texts.

Fundamental Errors in Published Works

When the author discovers a significant error or inaccuracy in his/her own published work, it is the author's obligation to promptly notify the journal as well as to cooperate with the Editor-in-Chief to retract or correct the paper. If the editors or publisher learns from a third party that a published work contains a significant error or inaccuracy, then it is the authors' obligation to promptly correct or retract the paper or provide evidence to the journal editors of the correctness of the paper.

Editorial Process:

- 1) Submitting the text by the Author (text and statements regarding consent to the rules of ethics and related to the open access system).
- 2) Editors' decision on compliance or non-compliance with the journal's profile.
- 3) Removal of the author's identification data from the text.

- 4) Submitting the text for evaluation by two independent Reviewers.
- 5) Providing the Editorial Board with the prepared opinions.
- 6) Sending the opinions of the Reviewers to the author of the text.
- 7) The Author's response to the opinions of the Reviewers.
- 8) The Editor's final decision to accept or reject the text for publication.
- 9) Technical and language editing.
- 10) Approval or rejection by the Author of the text after technical and linguistic editing.
- 11) Publication on the Sciendo and PressTo platform.
- 12) Print publication.